

2017-2018 SEASON • PLAYS FOR ELEMENTARY GRADES

The POWER of People

Bring some power into your classroom by being a part of HTY's 63rd season.

by Alvin Chan

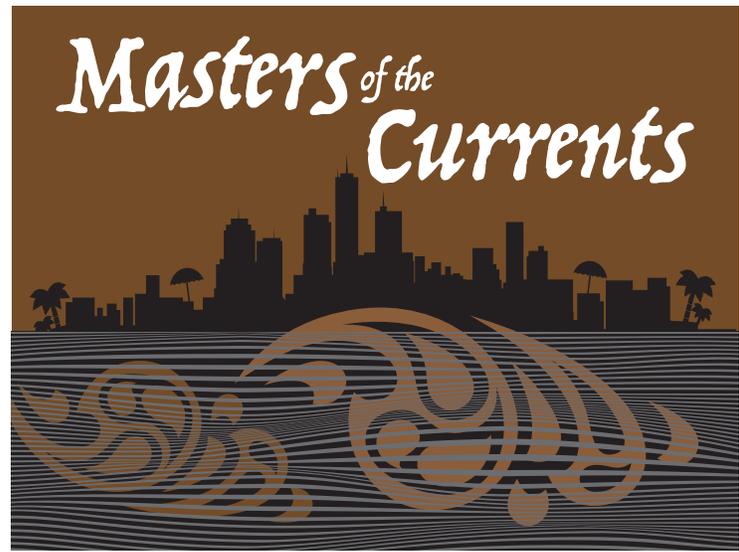

World Premiere!

When Mu Lan dresses up as a boy to take her father's place in the army, she has lots to learn and lots to prove, but her biggest battle might be with her confidence. This new telling of an ancient Chinese legend mixes traditional Chinese theatrical techniques with contemporary music for a brand new take on a classic story of girl power.

Grades 1-5

August 14 - October 4

Mon, Tues, Thurs, Fri @ 9:30 & 11am • Wednesdays @ 9:00 & 10:30am
See HTYweb.org for HDOE Benchmarks

by TeAda Productions

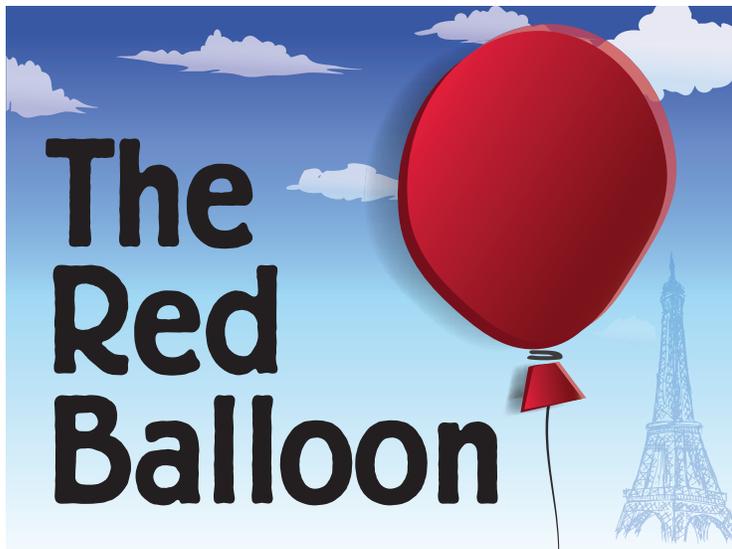

World Premiere!

Whether brought to Hawai'i for economic opportunity, environmental necessity or to be with family, our neighbors from across the Micronesian sub-region of Oceania are often misunderstood. Little is known of the rich traditions and cultures they bring with them. Led by Ova Saopeng and Leilani Chan, this production will premiere at HTY before embarking on a national tour.

Grades 5-12

October 12 - 25

by Annie Cusick Wood (based on the film by Albert Lamorisse)

Based on the Academy Award-winning film about the friendship between a young French boy and his magical balloon, this story was one of the first works for children to artfully approach the topic of bullying. The moving story is as relevant today in Hawai'i as it was in 1950s Paris.

Grades 1-3

January 8 - 26

Mon, Tues, Thurs, Fri @ 9:30 & 11am • Wednesdays @ 9:00 & 10:30am
See HTYweb.org for HDOE Benchmarks

by Moses Goods and friends

World Premiere!

This limited engagement storytelling event features frequent HTY collaborator Moses Goods sharing traditional stories about the Hawaiian akua (gods) manifesting themselves in the earthly realm through forms known as kinolau. A kinolau can be a plant, an animal or an element. How will these ancient stories illuminate our lives in Hawai'i today?

Grades 4-12

February 8-21

Mon, Tues, Thurs, Fri @ 9:30 & 11am • Wednesdays @ 9:00 & 10:30am
See HTYweb.org for HDOE Benchmarks

by Annie Cusick Wood

World Premiere!

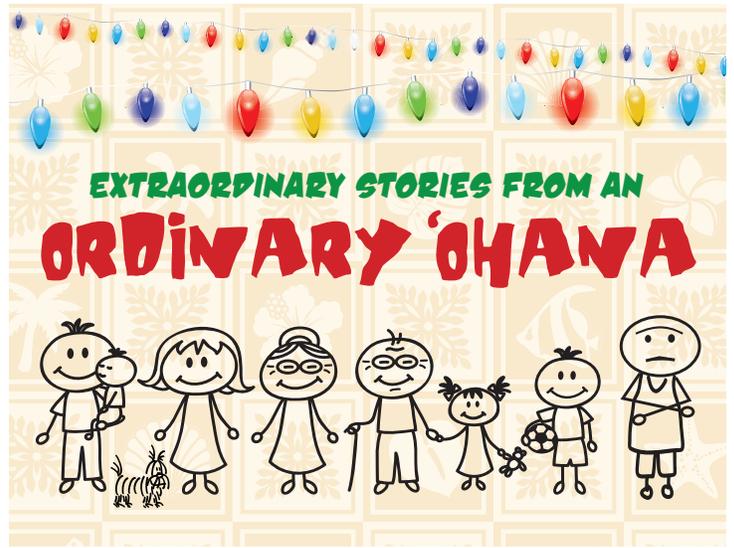

BOO and HOO are happy, even though they always seem to get an Ouch! Like the time when they got their fingers trapped in the door and the time they fell and scraped their knees. One day BOO and HOO begin to feel other people's OUCHES. So they set out on an adventure with their box of band aids to fix all the OUCHES in the world.

Grades Preschool-K

November 1-15

Mon, Tues, Thurs, Fri @ 9:30 & 11am • Wednesdays @ 9:00 & 10:30am

DEAR EDUCATOR:

With your help, over 100,000 students in Hawaii will enjoy professional theatre as part of their school day! Eight empowering productions make up Honolulu Theatre for Youth's 63rd season. We strive to enhance the learning you do in your classrooms and we cannot wait to share these productions with you and your students in the coming year. Together we can bring laughter, music, history, science, ancient stories and new ideas directly to the young people in Hawai'i.
