

HTY Presents the 2016-17 Season

STORIES OF

Home

Students: $6.00 Free/Reduced Rate Lunch: $4.50
Pre-purchased Student Discount Cards: 10 admissions for $45

Contact Stu at schools@htyweb.org for reservations and info, or call him at 808-839-9885 ext 701.

SIGN UP YOUR CLASS TODAY! More information, DOE benchmarks for each show and reservations form online at www.htyweb.org

by Alvin Chan, Eric Johnson and the HTY Company
based on the Japanese folktale

Back by popular demand, this original staging of Japan's most famous folktale teaches powerful lessons about inner strength and one's ability to stand up against bullying. The story features cute ogres, brave animals, and a miraculous boy born from a peach.

August 8 - October 7

M, T, TH, F @ 9:30 & 11am • Wed @ 9:00 & 10:30am

Grades 1-4

created by Ed Chevy and Friends

Visual poetry explodes as a company of deaf and hearing actors bring a dynamic world of gesture, expression, humor and language to the stage. Created to be fully accessible for hearing audiences, this performance provides a window into the vibrant creativity of our deaf community.

October 13 - November 10

M, T, TH, F @ 9:30 & 11am • Wed @ 9:00 & 10:30am

Grades 3-6

by Annie Cusick Wood

Meet Inky Blue and Pale Blue. Happy in their blue world. This is a simple story of what happens one day when color comes into their lives. Filled with fun, humor and whimsy, the show introduces the idea of tolerance and understanding in an age-appropriate theatrical experience.

NOVEMBER 14-18

M, T, TH, F @ 9:30 & 11am • Wed @ 9:00 & 10:30am

Grades Preschool - K

created by a variety of local writers, and Mark Lutwak

This collection of original scenes, stories and classic songs turns a nostalgic eye to our past. Some of Hawaii's best writers reflect on a time that built the values of community, diversity and ohana that we treasure today. This production will continue HTY's ongoing priority of creating inter-generational programming by celebrating this unique moment in the history of Hawaii.

November 28 - December 16

M, T, TH, F @ 9:30 & 11am • Wed @ 9:00 & 10:30am

Grades 1-6

by Finegan Kruckemeyer Co-commissioned by Terrapin Puppet Theatre

What happens when an island springs a leak and can no longer float on the open sea? This thoughtful and poetic story by the author of "Suzette Who Set To Sea" asks pressing questions about what might happen when an island's people are forced to change, and tells the story of one girl's heroic journey to save her people's lives and spirits.

August 8 - October 7

M, T, TH, F @ 9:30 & 11am • Wed @ 9:00 & 10:30am

Grades 4-9

by Annie Cusick Wood

This age-appropriate work explores the value of a shelter. What is a home? What happens when you do not have one? Two charming characters wrestle to create their own homes until they come to realize that one of the great joys of having a home is sharing it.

February 13 - 24

M, T, TH, F @ 9:30 & 11am • Wed @ 9:00 & 10:30am

Grades Preschool - K

by Y York, inspired by the story by Hans Christian Andersen
First Commissioned by Seattle Children's Theatre

Based on the popular fairytale about a tiny girl born from a flower who ventures into a new world filled with wonder, this original telling of the story will use technology, puppets and original artwork to create a real time storybook before your eyes. In a world where the small becomes larger than life, the value of friendship, family and the power of a good story are the most powerful magic.

March 28 - May 19

M, T, TH, F @ 9:30 & 11am • Wed @ 9:00 & 10:30am

Grades 1-4