

Pre-Show Discussion

Below are some questions related to the themes and action of the play.

Family

- Why is family important?
- What's something you enjoy doing with your family?
- What do you believe is something that family should always do for each other?
- What's something special you've done for your family?
- Who in your family has accomplished something special? What did she/he do?

Memories: Special experiences are important to each of us.

- What's one of the most exciting experiences you remember having with your family?
- What is one of the scariest?

Friendship

- What makes someone a friend?
- What do you and your friends most like to do?
- How do friends care for each other? What do friends like to do together?
- What happens when your friend is feeling bad? How do you help your friend?
- Have you and your friends ever had problems? What caused the problem between you? How did you fix it?

Identity

- How do you define who you are?
- How does your ethnicity influence who you are and what you believe?
- Many of us can claim more than one ethnicity. If you claim more than one, how does each influence who you are?
- Why are your ethnicity or ethnicities important to you?
- How do you share your ethnicity with others?

Cultural Heritage

- Where is the place you call 'home'? Why is that place 'home' to you?
- What do you know about the history of your culture(s)?
- What do people in your family or from your 'home' value? Why is that important to them?
- What would you want other people to respect about your cultural heritage(s)?

Tolerance

- What is 'tolerance'? Why do you believe tolerance is important in our world today?
- In the news we hear of groups that disagree with each other turning to violence and riots? Why do you think they believe fighting helps solve their disagreement?
- How might you suggest groups that disagree solve their differences?