E Ho'i Hou Return Anew

68TH SEASON

Welcome Back!

We are deeply grateful to every educator, family and child for your strength and courage the last two years. As our community continues to heal and rejuvenate, we are excited to present a season of original theatre honoring our return to live gatherings with laughter, stories, culture, and learning. We are also making room for what has changed and are preparing for changes yet to come. E Ho'i Hou, we return anew!

Our 68th Season opens with two performances celebrating the Hawaiian experience and concludes with a brand new pop musical featuring the entire ensemble. In January our production of In the Year of the Boar and Jackie Robinson returns to Honolulu as part of a 20+ city US tour. For our youngest audiences, we are creating two new original works about physical and emotional well-being. There is something for every age and interest and with complete flexibility to cancel or reschedule you can rest easy that we will put the safety of you and your students first.

Please reach out if you have any questions about the shows, or our booking process, or if you have ideas about how we can serve you better. We look forward to seeing you soon!

This original production introduces young audiences to Native Hawaiian ideas of balance and healing by exploring our relationship to pa'akai (salt). Traditionally, pa'akai is food, medicine, and sacrament; it is essential to our individual, communal and environmental well-being. Through stories, songs, laughter, and audience participation, the ensemble joyously celebrates ancient and modern ways we can restore and maintain balance.
